

NT7B58 Compact ICS phone system.

This is the compact ICS control unit. It has a maximum capability of 8 lines and 24 extensions. The control unit has a built in automated attendant with is a very desirable feature either for business hours or after business hours. This feature allows customers to direct their own calls to their desired extension. There is also an analog port build-in to the control unit which will allow for an answering machine to be hooks up and a general mailbox can be put on your system or use for the modem for you PC. This system is also Voicemail compatible.

- Continues the standards set by Norstar for providing friendly, intuitive business communications.
- Combines the latest technological advances with Liquid Crystal Display (LCD) Windows on every Norstar telephone, making it powerful, yet easy to use.
- Simple scalability for growth with your business—from more lines and stations to adding integrated Norstar Applications.
- Integrated Automated Attendant.
- Built in Internal Analog Terminal Adapter means you don't have to purchase extra equipment to connect an analog device, like a fax machine or modem.
- Voicemail, automated attendant, and internal fax switch support.
- Supports all Norstar and Business Series phones.

More Features Below

More Features:

- ALL NEW Compact ICS's ship with expanded (24 phone) software.
- Built in auto attendant for users without voicemail.
- Popular Features
- Calling Line Identification (CID) (with use of CID trunk Cards).
- Internal RAD for Remote Access.
- 255 system speed dials.
- Distinctive Ringing - Trunk based ringing tones.
- Auto Daylight Savings Time.
- Built in Paging.
- Built In Music on Hold.
- Automatic Set Relocation.
- Toll Restriction.
- DISA (Direct Inward System Access.)
- 100's more.